GHOST and TROLLEY TOURS

by Garry Bush

$10 Ghost Tours: Thursday, Session D and Friday, Session H (3:00 - 4:30)

Take a 1 ½ hour walking tour of Historic Downtown Lewiston and learn how the previous owners impacted our local history. Explore below the sidewalks and visit areas that have not changed for 100 years. Hear from the "voices" that traveled under the sidewalks and worked in the "unmentionable" side of 1900 society. Each Historic Building entered is documented with paranormal activity.

$15 Trolley Tours: Thursday, Session B and Friday, Session F (10:00- 11:30)

Take a 1 ½ hour narrated trolley tour of Lewiston's Normal Hill. Ride on board a replica trolley car while visiting Lewiston's original cemetery, and numerous sections of historic Normal Hill. The trolley will stop and passengers will walk 1 block viewing Victorian houses that have "ghostly stories".

College Credit

One college credit, pass/fail, is offered through LCSC or the University of Idaho.

Credit Fees

Lewis-Clark State College:

Idaho Certified Teachers $92

University of Idaho:

Undergraduate fee $92

Graduate fee $92

Go to: lewistonpie.com for more credit information. Washington Clock Hours are available.

Professional-Technical

The Professional-Technical Education (PTE) strand of the Partnerships in Education (PIE) Conference will provide workshops and industry tours in specific content areas. Other sessions will focus on the integration of academic and contextual learning, exploration of tomorrow's jobs, and identifying ways to help high school students' transition from secondary to postsecondary to the workforce.

Some of this year's specific content areas include:

- Early Childhood Education
- Geographic Information Systems
- Web Development
- Yearbook
- Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) education/careers, and many more.

Author

Our guest children's author for 2011 will be Mary Casanova, an award winning children's author of novels and picture books. Her books frequently land on state children's choice book master lists across the country.

Featured Presentations

"Eliminating Bullying and Harassment: Roles and Responsibilities of the School Community"

Thursday, October 6th Keynote (8:00 –9:30)
Kendra Hughes, Sr. Program Advisor for Northwest Regional Education Laboratory, REL Northwest

Research and resources to use in implementing policies and practices to eliminate bullying and harassment will be shared.

Office for Civil Rights guidelines for reporting, investigating and documenting complaints will be covered.

"Why Try? Overcoming Poverty, Violence and Failure"

Thursday, October 6th, Keynote (10:00 – 11:30)
Christian Moore L.C.S.W., Founder of WhyTry

Christian Moore will share motivational stories from his own life experiences as a youth with severe learning disabilities. He will explore the seeds of motivation and hope which enable children to overcome poverty, violence, and failure.

Breakout Session: Why Try? Innovative interventions that provide hope

Thursday, October 6, Session C (1:00-2:30)

This workshop will emphasize a strength-based approach to helping youth overcome their challenges by teaching social and emotional life skills using "multiple intelligence" methods that address the youths' learning styles. The WhyTry program presented is proven to increase graduation rates, reduce truancy, and improve school climate.

"Foldables Across the Curriculum with Dinah Zike"

Thursday, October 6, Session C (1:00-2:30)
Dinah Zike Dinah-Might Adventures, LP
Winner of Two Teachers' Choice Awards for 2011

In this fun, fast-paced session, learn from Dinah how to use Foldables – interactive, hands-on graphic organizers – to revolutionize the way you teach and the way your students study. Learn how to strengthen skills and make super study aids that will enhance student comprehension and engage young learners. Participants will make their own examples and learn strategies for implementing this powerful and effective learning tool. Material packets will be provided.

"ALL STAR TEACHING - MAKING THE FIRST TEAM"

Friday, October 7th Keynote (8:00 – 9:30)
Dave Shepard "The Middle Matters and More"

If your school district selected an all star teaching team, would you make the cut? Would you be recognized by the selected committee as the BEST there is? If they put together a highlight reel of your greatest teaching moments how would it compare to the other all stars? All educators have all star potential, but sometimes they don't harness their power. We all chose this profession to make a difference with children and part of that choice implied a constant drive toward personal excellence. Several simple steps that any educator can follow will be the focus of this discussion. Come and learn how to make the first team (maybe even All American).

"Bullying and Sexual Harassment Prevention" between student to student in the schools

Half Day Session, Friday, October 6th Sessions F&G(10:00- 2:30)
Lunch break (11:30-1:00)
Sue Kenny, Presenter
National Education Association Bullying and Sexual Harassment Prevention and Intervention Program

Bullying, sexual harassment, sexting, and cyberbullying in the schools will be talked about in detail and techniques will be given to stop the behaviors as well as what to look for, plus information on federal and state laws.
